Order.

No. PCHSR. 312. The notification dated 23rd October 1956, was issued from this office on the basis of the proposals submitted by the Mamlatdar under this No. VPCSR. 30, dated 24th December 1955, regarding the formation of wards and allocation of seats. According to this, 3 seats were allotted to ward No. II, out of which 1 was reserved for Scheduled Castes and 3 seats were allotted to ward No. III, out of which 1 was reserved for women. On the basis of this constitution, the Mamlatdar, was to conduct elections as per programme approved on 15th November 1956. In the meanwhile, the villagers of Tuppad-kurhatti, including some Harijans put in an application to the Mamlatdar on 14th November 1956 stating that the reservation of the seat for scheduled caste people was wrongly done against ward No. II instead of ward No. III and that majority of the Scheduled Caste people are residing in ward No. III. On enquiry with the Mamlatdar, it is found that the allegations made by the villagers are correct. So, I hereby order that the Notification issued under this Office No. PCHSR, 312, dated 23rd October 1956 should be cancelled.
